Robert K. Ocran Joins NSNA Staff as Controller

Brooklyn, New York. April 23, 2009. The National Student Nurses' Association (NSNA) is pleased to welcome Robert K. Ocran, MPA as he joins the Executive Staff as NSNA Controller, effective January 20, 2009. In his role at NSNA, he will direct the financial affairs of the association in addition to working alongside the NSNA Secretary/Treasurer and serve as the resource person for the Board of Directors Finance Committee.

Mr. Ocran comes to NSNA with over 13 years of financial and accounting experience in the non-profit sector, the majority of which has been in healthcare services. After receiving his diploma in Business Administration in Ghana, West Africa, Mr. Ocran received his BS in Accounting and MPA in Financial Management from Long Island University in Brooklyn, NY.

He speaks six languages (holding certificates in Italian and French from Don Bosco Institute in Rome) and has an impressive body of experience in West Africa, Italy, and the United Kingdom. Presently, he is pursuing an MA in Economics/Accounting in Brooklyn, NY. "I am very happy to be with NSNA," he says, "and look forward to working with this wonderful organization."
