In just 7.5 hours you will be well on your way to test success! Scheduled so that all students can attend, you will learn about selected topics that are on the exam. Here's what students who attended the 2011 MidYear Conference Mini Review said about this course:

- This was my personal favorite part of the conference. The presenter even used props for parts of the presentation. Very useful information and tips for the NCLEX.
- Speaker was awesome! I have used a lot of what I learned on unit tests and have shared some of it with fellow classmates. I would love to attend a session with her again.
- The information covered was presented in an interactive manner and therefore held everyone's attention. The test taking skills taught during the review has already helped me on my school's nursing exams.
