

Florence Nightingale & Clara Barton

PORCELAIN DOLLS

A UNIQUE COLLECTOR'S AND GIFT ITEM FOR NURSES!

The Foundation of the National Student Nurse's Association (FNSNA) is pleased to offer a special fundraising program that raises money for undergraduate nursing education scholarships.* The dolls are authorized by the United States Historical Society.

Standing 17.5 inches tall, Miss Nightingale and Miss Barton are dressed in hand-tailored period attire. The head, chest, arms, hands, legs and shoes are made of fine bisque porcelain, kiln-fired and hand painted. "The Lady with the Lamp" carries a lamp that replicates the original one used by Miss Nightingale in the Crimea! The Founder of the American Red Cross is accompanied by a Red Cross flag and other items from her era. These collector's items are individually numbered. Only a limited number are available.

These porcelain dolls are an ideal holiday, birthday or pinning/graduation gift for nurses. Gift boxed, each numbered porcelain doll comes with a gold embossed presentation case, Certificate of Authenticity bearing the number of the doll, and display stand.

Price: $130.00 per doll plus $10.00 shipping and handling within the 48 contiguous US (Official doll issue price is $195.) $80.00 of the total amount supports undergraduate nursing education scholarships and is tax-deductible. The FNSNA is a 501 C3 charitable organization. Your contribution will be acknowledged.
