

Faculty Schedule

This continuing nursing education activity has been submitted to the New York State Nurses Association, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

2009 NSNA MidYear Career Planning Conference
Hyatt Regency Phoenix Hotel and Phoenix Convention Center,
Phoenix, Arizona
October 29 - 31, 2009

Faculty Lounge is sponsored by the National League for Nursing and the Faculty Cyber Café is sponsored by Renown Health

Thursday, October 29, 2009

2:00pm – 3:30pm Understanding Nurse – Nurse - Hostility

Speaker: Kathleen Bartholomew, MN, RN, RC, author, and consultant, Swedish Medical Center/Convergent Knowledge Solutions, Seattle, WA. The expression “Nurses eat their young” is so far removed from our idea of the caring and nurturing nurse that we shudder to think it could possibly be true. Stories from the “Front line” cannot be ignored.

5:00 pm – 6:30 pm Opening Session and Keynote Address “Tips and Scripts for A Grand Entrance”

Keynote speaker Kathleen Bartholomew, RN, MN, a registered nurse and counselor, has been a national speaker for the nursing profession for the past seven years. Keynote Speaker Sponsor: Anthony J Jannetti, Inc, Pitman

Friday, October 30, 2009

8:00 am – 11:00 am Continental Breakfast and Leadership University Consultant Advisor Certificate Program Part I

Speakers: Dr. Diane Mancino, Executive Director NSNA, Dr. Cheryl Schmidt, ANA appointed consultant, Dr. Cheryl Taylor, NLN appointed consultant, and Carol Fetters Andersen, MS, RN, Director of Governance and New Program Development.

This program is meant to enhance the experience and effectiveness of state consultants and school chapter advisors to ensure the success of NSNA with an increase in the quality of member experiences and an increase in leadership development for nursing students. The program will cover strategic planning, fiduciary and governance responsibilities, succession planning, writing bylaws, policies and resolutions.

4:00 pm – 5:30pm Fostering Innovation in Nursing Education: The Regulatory Perspective

Speaker: Nancy Spector, PhD, RN Director of Education, National Council of State Boards of Nursing

Learn why nursing regulation is taking steps to foster innovations in education the regulatory influences on nursing education innovations and the recommendations NCSB N has made to foster innovations in nursing education.

Sponsor: National Council of State Boards of Nursing, Chicago, IL

Saturday, October 31, 2009

9:00 am – 10:30 am NSNA Leadership U Consultant Advisor Certificate Program Part II (continuation)

1:30pm – 3:00pm Real World Issues in Advising and Consulting for a Student Nurses' Association

NSNA's national consultants, Dr. Cheryl Taylor, NLN appointed consultant, and Dr. Cheryl Schmidt, ANA appointed consultant bring real problems and issues up for discussion in an interactive informal group discussion. The consultants will discuss key issues in advising and consulting as well as identify resources to assist the consultant/advisor.

3:30 pm – 5:00 pm Healthcare Policy and Nursing Students: Getting Involved

Speaker: Rosemary Mortimer, MSN, RN, Instructor, Johns Hopkins School of Nursing, Baltimore, MD

"By some estimates, 1 of every 45 potential voters is a nurse. But in the legislative arena, the nursing profession lacks the clout these numbers suggest."*How can nursing faculty educate and enlighten nursing students to learn the facts and get involved? Discuss and learn from this seasoned teacher and advocate.

*Johns Hopkins Nursing Magazine, fall 2003

This activity has been submitted to the New York State Nurses Association for approval to award contact hours. The New York State Nurses Association is accredited as an approver of continuing nursing education by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.